

RENEW RECONNECT RECEIVE REVISION

At the 2016 Asian Mission Forum

28th July – 1st Aug 2016, Hattan Hotel, Malacca, Malaysia

First of all, thanks to Luis Chito Cusi and his team for organizing AMF 2015. We will have a really good time making friends and encouraging one another, won't we?

AMF 2016 will be just as great. It will be held back to back with the Asia Pacific Elders, Deacons and Spouses Conference 2016. Here is some essential information to help you plan for this enriching event.

What: A mission forum held in a heritage city where participants can spend time relaxing and enjoying multicultural experiences. Also sharing experiences, insights into God's Word, and enjoying rich fellowship.

Who: The retreat is designed for local leaders and missionaries across Asia Pacific region. This includes not only current leaders, missionaries and their wives, but also prospective leaders, missionaries and their wives. Any Elders, sponsors, philanthropists, and, in particular, global partners who are keen and overseeing works in Asia Pacific region are strongly encouraged to participate and contribute in this forum. Let's come to the table to feast, listen and talk to one another sensing what God is doing in various communities and together join Him in mission and ministry.

When: 28th July – 1st August 2016 (Thursday – Monday).

Where: Hattan Hotel (www.hattenhotel.com), Malacca, West Malaysia. The organizers are Church of Christ, Pasir Panjang in Singapore (www.ppcoc.org) and Seremban Church of Christ in Malaysia (www.cocsrban.com). We hope that existing participants will help encourage new interest in the coming AMF 2016.

Cost: Please pay for your own airfares to Kuala Lumpur International Airport (KLIA). Accommodation and meals will cost USD$300/AUD$400/SGD$400 per person for early bird registration (15th January – 15th March) & USD$320/AUD$450/SGD$450 per person for registration (16th March – 16th May), twin share, for 4 nights & 5 days. PP Church will bear the cost of inviting and bringing across a guest speaker as well as participants' transportation costs from KLIA to the hotel venue in Malacca.

Guest speaker: Dr Evertt Huffard, Harding School of Theology, Memphis, USA (<http://hst.edu/our-community/faculty/>). Evertt has been a missionary in the Middle East and an elder. He teaches missiology and spiritual leadership at HST.

Kindly circulate this date-holder among your fellow brothers and sisters to gain their participation.

God bless!
